THE MEMO

June 5th - June 11th

- Find the Fun — Let's make an Aperol spritz on a sunny day! — Have fun researching the web for the best Aperol spritz recipe. We're excited to try this one by Serena Wolf. Text a few friends/families to invite them to join you in a casual, fun, sunny summer afternoon get-together.
- Father's Day — Have you bought your gift yet? ~ Make sure you find something special (even if it's just the perfect card!) for all the Dads in your life. We know men can be hard to shop for, so here is our Father's Day Gift Edit for the cool dads.
- Father's Day — Write & Mail Card/Gifts ~ Write your card(s) and help your kid(s) make their card for Dad. Then, for those you aren't going to celebrate with in person, it's time to wrap and put their gifts/cards in the mail to ensure they arrive on time.
- Fourth of July — Host a Party ~ Party like it's 1776 It's time to get excited about your 4th of July party! Start to think through the details of your party, what games you want to play, what food + beverages you wish to serve, and who you want to invite for the festivities!
- Fourth of July — Buy Decorations ~ Now is a great time to order any new decorations you want to ensure you get them in time for the fourth of July! Here are Beautiful 4th of July Decorations You'll Enjoy Displaying Year after Year.
- Back to School ~ Immunization & school forms — Check with your School to see what immunization and physical forms you need to have completed before the next school year. Then, book the necessary doctor's appointments NOW before they fill up. Make sure you budget the turnaround time the doctor's offices require to complete the form post your visit! Your future self will thank you for completing this task before you are entirely in summer mode.
- Summer - Find the Fun ~ Buy concert tickets — Experiences make life more meaningful. So buy your concert tickets now and have an evening to look forward to this summer! We ♥ starting with SeatGeek and then also looking at Ticketmaster. Search by concerts near you OR venues you love or on your bucket list!
