

THE MEMO

september 25th — october 1st

- Halloween — Have you ordered your costumes yet? ~ Here are the best shops this year. We hope our round-up makes shopping fun versus frustrating!
- Find The Fun — Coordinate Apple Picking ~ Text friends/family with available weekends and start to firm up your plans. Still need to find a farm? Here are The Best Places To Go Apple Picking.
- Home — Refresh Your Front Porch Planters ~ This is a great weekend to enjoy stopping by your local greenhouse and picking up new flowers for your front porch potters, window boxes, season wreaths, etc.! Have fun getting your hands dirty!
- Health — Book Flu Shots ~ Call your pediatrician this week to book your kid(s) appointment for their flu shot.
- Halloween — Buy Boo Bag Goodies ~ Buy stuff for your boo bag, so you don't get caught flat-footed. Usually, people boo about two people each, but we say the more, the merrier.
- Go on a Hike and Enjoy The Fall Foliage ~ Confirm your plans to go hiking. And add the date to your calendar, so you don't let it slip, and you have something to look forward to!
