

THE WEEK AHEAD

april 30th — may 6th

- Kids — Get ready for (sleepaway) camp — Get the packing lists from your kid(s) sleepaway camp and start to pull out and purchase everything your kid(s) will need.
- Mother's Day — Make a Plan — It's time to make any restaurant reservations, book spa reservations, etc.!
- Graduation — Get inspired — And so the adventure begins. Start to think about what you want to give the graduate(s) on your list. The best graduation gifts are three things: well-made or special in some sentimental sort of way, useful to him in whatever phase comes next, and a little bit outside of his budget while still being reasonably within yours.
- Cinco De Mayo — Order — Make sure to add any special ingredients (READ: MARGARITA ESSENTIALS) to your grocery order this week!
- Memorial Day — Prepare To Decorate Your Home — It's time to freshen up your decorations and purchase anything new you want this year -- be it supplies for a DIY project or ready-made decorations. Here is THE only shopping list you need — Memorial Day Decorations You'll Love For Years
