

THE WEEK AHEAD

july 30th — august 5th

- Kids Fall Activities — REMINDER: Register Your Kid(s) — Sign your kids up for their Fall sports + activities.
- Back to School — Let's go shopping! — Hopefully, you've had the time to go through your kid's draws and closets to see what they have and determine what they need. Now enjoy the fun part of buying them what they need in terms of new clothes, shoes, etc!
- If you're planning to be away, this week is a great time to book your flights, schedule your pet/house sitter, and start planning your itinerary.
- Find The Fun — Buy Polar Express Tickets — Sounds WILD, but Polar Express tickets are now available. Make sure you buy your tickets ASAP for the best available date and times.
