

THE WEEKLY LIST

November 12th - November 18th

Around The House

- Winter Clothes — Put away any lingering summer clothes and pull out your winter clothes. Make note of anything that needs replacing and take advantage of upcoming Black Friday sales.
- December Birthdays & Celebrations — Buy all your presents and cards for the month.

Thanksgiving

- If you are hosting —
 - Put the finishing touches on the guestrooms
 - Pick up your table linens from the dry cleaner
 - Start putting out your Thanksgiving decorations — preparing slowly will help you enjoy the process versus feeling stressed going into the holiday.
- If you are a guest —
 - Buy your hostess a small gift
 - If you're bringing any dishes — make sure you add those ingredients to your next grocery list

Christmas

- Christmas Lists — Finalize your kid's Christmas list this week — This way, you will be ready to buy most of what you need when all the brands are running their Black Friday and Cyber Monday sales!
- Start Planning Your Holiday Cards — Decide where you will purchase your cards from and start designing your card
- If you're traveling
 - Book Car Maintenance — Take a quick look and see if your car needs a tune-up before your trip. If so, call to make your appointment.
- Christmas Tree Prep — Most people decorate their tree the day after Thanksgiving. Now is a great time to make sure your lights work and that you have all the ornaments you need.
- Holiday Decorations — Look for inspiration, and add items to your cart(s) to get the decorations you want while they are still in stock!
- Reminder: Buy your advent calendars
- Week Between Christmas and New Year — If you are off, start planning what seasonal (and local) activities you'll do to make the most of your time together as a family!

New Year's Getaway

- Choose Where You'll Stay — Pick your accommodations and book your hotel directly to get the best deals and perks!
